THE Model Salvation Soldier.

General's Letter.

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE SALVATION ARMY

I said last week that after all, the Model Soldier was the Lord Jesus. His life and teachings taken together constitute the pattern and each of us must follow Him in every true method in which our command for the deliverance of man from sin is to be carried out.

Let us have any duty in the merits of the sacrifice without fighting under His banner. If we secure His favor himself, we can do it without fighting. Where those feet shall lead? My comrades, I say "Impossible!" He who follows the pattern of His Master, the same obligation is binding on us.

What must follow Him. Nothing that is not in the past or that is not in the future can be the basis of our obligation or excuse for neglecting to follow Him. He who has any duty in the merits of the sacrifice without fighting under His banner.

is following Christ? It isn't to discover. Here, anywhere, or in the level with the usual divine. It simply means keeping His commandments and doing His will. The fact that I want to follow Him is the first step. Following means following the pattern of His Master, the same obligation is binding on us.

therefore I must say what is in my soul in this matter. I must push this question. How you do this is the same as that which brought Christ to the manger. Let Him fight the fight of the world. The wilderness, how He onward on the back of suffering and tears and agony and shame; sustained Him in drinking the Cup of anguish and enduring the Beadman of Blood, how He through Gethsemane, united Him to the Cross of Calvary, and enabled Him to triumph over the powers of the Kingdom. If this what you are living for? If not you may be religious—a very proper person amongst religiousists, but I don't see how you can be a Christian.

What is the value of a shell without a kernel? What is a body without a soul? What is a Christian without a Christ inside. If any man have not the soul of Christ, he is none of His and the supreme purpose of Christ's spirit was, and still is, and ever will be to save the world.

We know what is done with shells that have no kernels. We know what is done with bodies where the soul is wanting, and there is a great deal of very plain speaking in the Bible, my comrades, about what is done with men and women who are not of the spirit of Christ. There are no hands to the blessing—present and future—which God will lavish on those who have the form and the power, but the hypocrites will be cut asunder and have their portion in the outer darkness, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth.

My comrades, let us watch, and compare ourselves with our Divine Model; so shall it be well with us, and so shall we have prosperity. Believe me, Years for carrying on the War after the Master's fashion.

WILLIAM BROTHER.

"I do not feel that I am a sinner."

Well, you are a sinner, whether you feel it or not, and you are called to fight with a question of feeling, but of fact. Many a man has been finally left without feeling his sin, but his lack of feeling did not arrest for one moment the progress of sin and death. It is the most terrible count in the indictment brought against those who were "delivered from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness (or hardness) of their hearts; that they were "not feeling." Your inappreciability, therefore, is no excuse for continued indifference to the peril of your soul, but an aggravation of your guilt.

words of our Saviour, "Then shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength; this is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' Judged by this law, you have sinned every second of your existence, so that if you have lived thirty years, you are already charged with more than nine hundred millions of sins. Your very nature is sinful, and if you could see yourself in the light of God's presence, you could exclaim as Job did, 'Behold, I am vile; you would cry out as Isaiah did, 'Woe is me! for I am undone.' In addition to the unnumbered sins committed against God's law, and flowing from a corrupt nature, you are justly unnumbered for the crowding and damming sin of unbelief. The Lord Jesus Christ says, 'He that believeth not is condemned (or judged) already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.' and again He says, the Holy Spirit will not be given to him, because he believeth not on Me." While, therefore, you continue in unbelief, you are guilty of the sin of sin.

John 16: 714,

everybody are plunged in vice and degradation, and are dying like mad and there all around you in anguish and despair.

Those were also your brothers, your sisters. You have a solemn responsibility with regard to them. Has not the Lord said—"If you expect not to turn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die because of his iniquity, but his blood will I demand at thy hand."

Oh! what a responsibility is yours! What you have failed to do has not been done by any one. Your neglected work has remained unaccomplished for ever, and Jesus who shed His blood for you, looks at you, asks you what you have done for Him in return for His love, by which no creature is allowed to be a hindrance.

What have you to answer? You drop your head—you have nothing to say. Oh! what eternal shame will cover you when you feel the fervidity, the pathos, the bitterness of all the miserable excuses that you made to hide your unfaithfulness. Alas! this is the worst bitter drink in your cup of sin—to meet the regret of the man who died for you.

But, unrepentable him, the end has not come yet! These are the days, yet, yet, yet for your unfaithfulness. On May will fulfil your duty, finish the work appointed you, bring—all who come to know many—all to the feet of Jesus.

Awake! the time is short. Officers, Sergeants, Soldiers, all over the world, go at it, go at it! The time is flying, you have not a moment to lose if you wish to meet God in Heaven.

Strong Drink.

We will not buy,
We will not make,
We will not use,
We will not take;
Wine, Oiler, Beer,
Rum, Whisky, Gin,
Because they lead
Men into sin.

Tobacco.

We will not smoke
The smoker's pipe,
Those little things
Called Cigarettes.
We will not smoke
The pipe, the cigar,
We will not sniff,
Or waste our time
In playing puff.

Profanity.

We will not curse,
Though many dare,
Open their lips
To curse and swear.
Our words shall be
Both pure and plain,
We will not take
God's name in vain.

From all your filthiness and from all you idols, will I cleanse you.—Ezekiel, xxxvi Chap. 26 Verse.

PROMOTED.

Our dear comrade, Mrs. Joy, daughter of Archibald and Deborah Braden, was promoted from the 74th Canadian Corps to the higher ranks in glory, 15th February, 1885.

She sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, leaving a grand testimony behind her, that our war was no mere Jingoism and Jingoism.

As we followed the last remains of our dear sister to the tomb, marching nearly 100 strong, the people were moved, but we felt that it was good to die in the Lord.

After the funeral we had a meeting, when five precious souls came to Jesus, Hallelujah! Sunday evening we had a grand memorial meeting. Such a time of power. Best of all, two souls were their way to the feet of the Friend of sinners. Five a volley.

Capt. Goodall, Lieut. Fisher, Platoon.

Newcastle.

The fighting here has been hard, but we felt was with us and he was more than all that would be against us. Tuesday night we had happy till with us.

Jesus

Had a real good meeting and we are asking God to make the people so miserable in heart of their sin that they will come and cry to God for pardon. We are trusting in Jesus and believing for Victory.

DEATH AND GLORY SING.

The devil is raging here; nevertheless God is saving, we meet.

We are having grand meetings here God forever, powerful times all day Sunday, closed with a precious soul happy in a Father's love to God be all the glory.

A QUANT OF WHISKEY HID IN THE

The Lord is still our refuge and our strength, a very present help in all our troubles. And while giving them an invitation to come to Christ, these brave brothers who felt the bitter pangs caused by sin, longed to be free, and accordingly volunteered forward, and while on his knees before God, pleading for deliverance a quart of whiskey came up before his eyes, which hid him from the Divine Spirit of a loving Saviour, he turned round with a weak trembling nerve, brought on by drink, and says, "Captain I have got a quart of whiskey hid in the house, and I feel I can't get Salvation, I said in reply, and I will go with you to the house after the meeting and throw it away. He was satisfied and Hallelujah! the light broke in that moment, the chains were so weak, that he has been in the march ever since and testifies from his platform every night. Hallelujah! we are on our way forth Soldiers in the march on Saturday. Powerful meeting all day Sunday, closing on the 14th day engagement with twelve prisoners, and lots wounded. Giving God all the praise.
Capt. Mitchell and Wife.

Bath.

Blessed times! We feel that the Lord still is with them, and is trying to bring the sinners in. Our hearts have rejoiced to see four brothers say they were determined to live for Christ, and give up sin. We are marching on.
To conquer all,
Before our King,
The world shall fall.
Capt. Etie Hall.

Tilsonburg.

Perhaps you think we are dead here, because we have not sent a report for two weeks, but praise God we are alive and kicking! and Tilsonburg is going up. Hallelujah! We have had a big fight to get proper order, and have succeeded. Citizens and magistrates on our side. Now the order is better, meetings better, Soldiers better, collections better, and what is better than all, God is working in the sinners hearts.
Our big sinners has surrendered to our King. The world's lifetime of work to see him saved. His little boy says his father once the wood without swearing. On Sunday night we said farewell to a large crowd. Oh! Miss Tilsonburg!
Capt. Curry, Cadet Richardson.

Walkerton.

This has been a week of grand success. Good Soldiers meeting on Monday night. Tuesday grand march and splendid meeting, a number of thrilling testimonies from the Soldiers.

Wednesday marched out on the street to tell the poor sinners of the love of Jesus, and many followed to our meeting inside. We could not get the place on Thursday and Friday nights. We were offered a room by some good friends, where we went and held a beautiful prayer meeting, and God blessed us.

Saturday night out again on the street, with cornet, tambourine, and drum, also a number of Blood and Fire Soldiers singing to the top of their voices. Sunday morning gathered a big crowd on the corner, where we told them of a loving Saviour we had found. Sunday, meetings grand all day.

Private McKelvie for Capt. Van Allen, Cadet Foster.

Norwich.

Praise God for victory over sin and the devil. Yesterday was a precious time to our souls. Glory be to God! because we saw the devil defeated. God's name glorified, and sinners snatched as brands from the burning. God does use the weak things of the world to confound the mighty. Closed with six souls at the Saviour's feet. More determined to fight on in the strength of Jesus, upon the plans of hall, and remove the perishing, and care for the dying.
Lieut. Gervie for Capt. Bella.

(Original for the War Cry.)

Jesus loved the World.

By CAPT. WILLIAMSON, LONDON.

TUNE—"Sing Soldiers Sing."

God loved the world so dearly,
That He gave His only son,
To die, that every sinner might be saved,
That whosoever believed, the finished work is done.
Through Jesus they can all Salvation have.

Oh Lord I believe that thou has set me free,
And glory to God Salvation just suits me.

Oh come along to Jesus He'll take you sine away,
And he will make you happy all the day.

When I was living in my sins, far away from God,
Without a thought of Heaven or of hell;
Jesus came to save me, and spill His precious Blood,
And snatched me as a burning brand from hell.

When first I saw my Saviour, extended on the tree,
And witnessed His agony and blood,
I know that all He suffered, it was for you and me,
Yet rebels we might yet come back to God.

Oh! brother come to Jesus He'll wash your sins away;
And do not live no longer in your sin,
Accept His offered mercy, this moment turn to Him and He will take you in.

2nd chorus
Oh! come now to Jesus, He'll wash your sins away,
And glory Hallelujah! you'll be happy all the day.

In the pardoning love of Jesus to you so freely given,
And place you on the royal road to Hagon.

Going up Zion's Hill.
TUNE—"One more river to cross."

I've Jesus with me all the time,
I'm going up Zion's Hill,
Upon the Hallelujah line,
I'm going up Zion's Hill.

chorus
Going, going, I'm going up Zion's Hill,
Up Zion's Hill together we go,
Going up Zion's Hill,
But off to encounter the foe,
Going up Zion's Hill.

Temptations off to me he brings,
Going up Zion's Hill,
But then I'm led by the King of Kings,
Going up Zion's Hill.

And away crest fallen the devil goes,
Going up Zion's Hill,
For I strike him head with gospel blows,
Going up Zion's Hill.

Jesus does give me strength and power,
Going up Zion's Hill,
To defeat the devil at any hour,
Going up Zion's Hill.

Sometimes he says I am not saved,
Going up Zion's Hill,
I tell him on Jesus my sins were laid,
Going up Zion's Hill.

I ask him if he forgets the night,
Going up Zion's Hill,
When Jesus gave me the gospel light,
Going up Zion's Hill.

Sometimes he says I am a fool,
Going up Zion's Hill,
I say I don't belong to your school,
Going up Zion's Hill.

And when at last I've reached the top,
I've got up Zion's Hill,
Hallelujah I will shout,
I've got up Zion's Hill.

O come dear sinners come along,
And go up Zion's Hill,
Get saved and sing the glad new song,
And go up Zion's Hill.

Oh, 'Tis madness to reject Him,
TUNE—"Sister Thelma" or "Gipsy's warning."

Will you not to Jesus come?

Hasten to His feet to-day,
And for faith on Him relying,
All your sin will be away.
